

After They Came: A Gripping Tale of Survival and Resistance in Nazi-Occupied France

By Tom Kavanagh

In the small village of Villeneuve, nestled in the rolling hills of southern France, life was peaceful and predictable. The villagers went about their daily lives, unaware of the dark clouds gathering on the horizon.

But in the spring of 1940, everything changed. The Nazi war machine swept across Europe, and France fell under its brutal occupation. Villeneuve was no longer a safe haven. The villagers were forced to live under the constant threat of violence and oppression.
