

Bad Boys Wrestling: Metaverse Wrestling and the Rise of the Bad Boys

The Rise of the Bad Boys

Bad Boys Wrestling was founded in 2016 by Joey Janela, Marko Stunt, Jungle Boy, and Luchasaurus. The four wrestlers had been friends for years, and they shared a common goal of creating a wrestling promotion that would be different from anything else that was out there.

Bad Boys Wrestling's first event was held in a small club in Los Angeles, California. The event was a huge success, and it quickly became clear that Bad Boys Wrestling was a promotion that had something special. The promotion's unique style of wrestling, which was characterized by high-flying moves and fast-paced action, was a hit with fans.

Bad Boys Wrestling quickly began to attract attention from the wrestling industry. In 2018, the promotion signed a deal with Major League Wrestling (MLW). The deal gave MLW access to Bad Boys Wrestling's library of footage, and it also allowed Bad Boys Wrestling wrestlers to compete on MLW events.
