Are you looking for some fun and easy DIY toys to make with your kids? Look no further! In this article, we'll show you how to build four different types of toys using simple materials that you can find around the house.

Jam Jar Jets

Materials:

* Empty jam jar * Balloon * Rubber band * Scissors

Instructions:

1. Cut the bottom off of the jam jar. 2. Stretch the balloon over the opening of the jar. 3. Secure the balloon with the rubber band. 4. To launch the jet, simply pull back on the balloon and let go.

Elastic Zip Cannons

Elastic zip cannons are a great way to practice hand-eye coordination.

Materials:

* Empty ziplock bag * Elastic band * Scissors * Tape

Instructions:

1. Cut a small hole in the bottom of the ziplock bag. 2. Thread the elastic band through the hole. 3. Tape the elastic band to the inside of the bag. 4. To launch the cannon, simply pull back on the elastic band and aim at your target.

Clothespin Snap Shooters

Materials:

* Clothespins * Rubber bands * Small objects (such as beans or marbles)

Instructions:

1. Attach a rubber band to each clothespin. 2. Place a small object in the center of one of the clothespins. 3. Pinch the clothespins together to launch the object.

More DIY Toys

In addition to the four toys listed above, there are many other fun and easy DIY toys that you can make with your kids. Here are a few ideas:

* Popsicle stick catapults * Cardboard box cars * Paper plate frisbees * Tin can stilts * Water balloon launchers

The possibilities are endless! So get creative and have some fun!
