

Geek Charming by Robin Palmer: A Witty and Heartwarming Tale of Love and Acceptance

Josh Hutchins is a high school senior who has always felt like an outsider. He's not into sports or popular culture, and he's more comfortable spending time alone than with others. When he's paired with popular cheerleader Claire Standish for a school project, Josh is convinced that it's going to be a disaster.

But as Josh and Claire spend more time together, they realize that they have a lot more in common than they initially thought. Claire is actually a pretty cool person, and she's not as shallow as Josh thought she was. And Josh, despite his quirks, is actually pretty charming. As they get to know each other, they begin to question their assumptions about themselves and the world around them.

Geek Charming is a witty and heartwarming novel that explores the themes of identity, acceptance, and the power of friendship. It's a story about two people who learn to embrace their differences and find love in unexpected places.
