The once-vibrant and compassionate Evelyn is transformed into a cold and detached creature, devoid of human emotions. Her body remains youthful and beautiful, but her soul is slowly dying.

As Evelyn struggles to come to terms with her new existence, she meets David, a young man who is dying from a terminal illness. David's unwavering spirit and zest for life challenge Evelyn's beliefs about immortality.

Together, Evelyn and David embark on a journey to uncover the true nature of life and death. They explore the dark underbelly of the scientific community, where the pursuit of immortality has led to unspeakable horrors.

As the lines between life and death blur, Evelyn must make a choice. Will she embrace her eternal existence, even if it means sacrificing her humanity? Or will she find a way to regain her mortality, even if it means facing her own mortality?
