Moon Chosen: Tales of a New World is a captivating anthology of fantasy and science fiction stories set in a world where the moon holds a mystical power. These stories explore the many ways in which the moon can affect the lives of those who live under its light. From stories of love and loss to tales of adventure and discovery, Moon Chosen has something for everyone.

The anthology features stories from a variety of talented authors, including:

- Ursula K. Le Guin
- Neil Gaiman
- N.K. Jemisin
- Octavia Butler

- Ted Chiang

These authors have crafted a world that is both familiar and strange, a place where the moon's power is both a blessing and a curse. In the story "The Moon's Daughter" by Ursula K. Le Guin, a young woman discovers that she is the daughter of the moon goddess. She must use her newfound powers to save her people from a terrible threat.

In "The Shadow of the Moon" by Neil Gaiman, a group of friends embark on a dangerous journey to find the lost city of Lunaria. Along the way, they must face the challenges of the moon's dark side.

In "The City of the Moon" by N.K. Jemisin, a young woman escapes from a life of slavery and finds herself in a city where the moon's power is used to control the population. She must find a way to break free from the city's grip and find her own destiny.

These are just a few of the many stories that make up Moon Chosen: Tales of a New World. This anthology is a must-read for fans of fantasy and science fiction. It is a book that will transport you to another world and stay with you long after you finish reading it.
