A Memoir by Dev

In Only One Boy, Dev delves into the complexities of first love, exploring the ways in which it both forms and transforms us. With honesty and vulnerability, he shares his own experiences of young love, from the exhilaration of falling head over heels to the heartbreak of loss. Along the way, he considers the universal themes of love, longing, and identity, ultimately arriving at a profound understanding of the human heart.

Told in a raw and intimate style, Only One Boy is a coming-of-age story that will resonate with anyone who has ever loved and lost. It is a celebration of the joys and challenges of first love, and a reminder that even the most fleeting of romances can leave a lasting impact on our lives.
